Dear Parents

As part of her A Level Spanish, your daughter is studying Spanish culture. We would, therefore, like to take her to see “La casa de Bernarda Alba” a play by Federico García Lorca, at the Almeida Theatre on Upper Street on the evening of Thursday the 9th of February. This outing will give her a valuable insight into Spanish theatre.

The tickets cost of £16 and, with your permission, that sum will be added to your account.

We offer to meet the girls in the restaurant ‘The Blue Légume’ located opposite the Islington Town Hall at 177 Upper Street, at 5:30pm, where we shall sample “Chocolate con Churros’ before the play starts. This will cost approximately £4.50.

She should make her way to Upper Street and aim to arrive at ‘The Blue Légume’ at 5:30pm, or meet the group at the theatre on Almeida Street at 7pm if she cannot come to the restaurant. She should make her own way there and back.

Please fill in the slip below in order to enable your daughter to attend.

Yours sincerely

Ms Hernández-Campillo
Spanish Teacher
