

Dear Parents

This morning, my assembly explored our School's vision, Girls Enjoying Success. In my first month as the Head of Fairseat, I have been privileged and in awe of the girls' many accomplishments in all areas of school life. Here are a few of my highlights: gold medals at an inter-school netball tournament, marvellous musicians playing at assemblies, learning lots of new words and phrases during European Languages Week, a fantastic historically themed class assembly and excellent entries for the Art Competition. Furthermore, all of the girls, especially the Y6 guides, made me very proud as they were amazing ambassadors at our Open Mornings. The girls' achievements and moreover, their desire to succeed and want to do their very best, is very impressive and encompasses all we represent. I eagerly await to see which girl's success will brighten up my day next.

Girls Enjoying Success Award

In addition to Good Work and Good Manners Awards, I have introduced the Girls Enjoying Success Award. Any teacher can nominate someone who they think has been successful and found joy in this. This could be during a lesson, in assembly, at playtimes, in a position of responsibility, or on a trip. The chosen girl will visit me in my office and, not only receive a specially designed certificate, but in addition, her name will be written in the Girls Enjoying Success Book and she will get to choose a prize from the special chest.

Harvest Festival Week

This week (1-5 October) is our Harvest Festival Week. We are collecting much needed food and other non-perishables on behalf of CARIS in Haringey. CARIS works with and on behalf of Haringey's homeless families and families in unsecured accommodation. Any donation, even the smallest, makes a huge difference.

Here are the items they are in need of:

- Tinned Food (NOT soup as they have plenty)
- Jars of Sauce
- Pasta/Rice
- Tea/Coffee/Hot Chocolate (they are very low on these)
- Long Life Milk
- Oil/Flour/Sugar/Salt
- Breakfast cereals
- Jam/Biscuits/Sweets
- Baby Food
- Toothbrushes & Toothpaste
- Soap/Shower Gel/Shampoo/Conditioner
- Toilet Roll/Kitchen Roll

- Nappies (Primarily Sizes 5 & 6)
- Baby Wipes
- Sanitary Items

Please leave your donations in the Orangery (in the school, past the school office). Your donations are very much appreciated.

There will be sweets and glo accessories for the kids; this year, there will also have be glow in the dark face painting.
